DOB: 05/26/1982

I have information that a crime (or offense) has been committed by the defendant as follows: (describe source, facts indicating reliability and credibility of source, and nature of information; if based on personal knowledge, so state).

RSA 631: 2-B, IC, DV	2nd Degree Assault	(Fel. B)
RSA 631:2-B, IA, DV	Simple Assault	(Mis. A)
RSA 631:2-B, IK, DV	Obstructing Report of Crime	(Mis. A)
RSA 265:4-C	Disobeying an Officer	(Mis. A)
RSA 635:2 ,III	Criminal Trespass	(Mis. A)
RSA 265:79	Reckless Operation	(Violation)

1. On January 31, 2021 at approximately 0250 hours, I was dispatched to 16 Cypress Way for a 911 hang up. Dispatch attempted to call the phone number back and a female answered, and then hung up. Dispatch attempted to call the phone number back again and the phone went straight to voicemail.

2. Upon my arrival, I observed an open garage door and saw a male individual in the garage. The male individual then closed the garage door. I knocked on the front door to 16 Cypress Way and a female answered the door. I identified myself as Exeter Police and asked if she was okay. I explained that we had received a 911 hang up from this residence. The female, who was later identified as:

H [REDACTED] G [REDACTED]
DOB: 04/21/1991

stated that her boyfriend had just assaulted her and took off. G [REDACTED] stated her boyfriend, who was later identified as:

BRYAN ERICKSON

left the residence on foot through the back garage door. G [REDACTED] stated that Erickson typically parks his vehicle down the street at Deepmeadow Variety. Sgt. West and Ofc. Sheehy arrived on scene and were advised that Erickson had left the residence. G [REDACTED] stated that Erickson owned a Grey Ford F150 truck. Sgt. West and Ofc. Sheehy began searching the surrounding area. Sgt. West located the vehicle traveling inbound on Linden Street and then the vehicle turned onto Gary Lane. Sgt. West and Ofc. Sheehy were both traveling in fully marked police cruisers with their emergency lights activated. Sgt. West and Ofc. Sheehy advised that the vehicle was not stopping and began to flee outbound on Court Street towards Kensington, NH at approximately 80 miles per hour. Exeter Police stopped pursuing Erickson at the Kensington, NH town line. G [REDACTED] was able to locate a photo in her phone of Erickson's vehicle and provided me with Massachusetts registration 1FLZ74. Sgt. West and Ofc. Sheehy were unable to stop the vehicle prior to it leaving Exeter.

3. G [REDACTED] stated the Erickson is a Massachusetts State Trooper. I asked G [REDACTED] if Erickson had any weapons on him and she stated he did not have one on persons when he was inside her residence, but he typically carries a firearm in his vehicle in the center console. All units were advised that Erickson may potentially be armed. A 12 Hour Domestic Stop and Arrest BOLO was issued for Erickson.

4. I observed multiple minor bruises and scratches on G [REDACTED]. Ofc. Sheehy photographed G [REDACTED]'s injuries. Ofc. Sheehy and I obtained an audio recorded statement from G [REDACTED]. A brief synopsis of G [REDACTED]'s statement is as follows:
